The City of Waller and the Waller Area Chamber of Commerce sponsored a Giddyup Christmas Party and tree lighting at the Waller City Hall on Nov. 27. Pictured is Krystin Garrett of Waller placing a handmade decoration on the tree. The kindergarten through second grade students of Waller Independent School District made the decorations in anticipation of
